Clash of Cultures, 1870

Everett S. Allen, distinguished local author and historian, spoke to a packed house as the Mattapoisett Historical Society presented Mr. Allen as he spoke on his new book, "Children of the Light". The early American church-museum was crammed both on the main floor and in the balcony to hear these excerpts from the author. Mr. Allen presented his subject in three parts - the whale, the Alaskan Eskimo and the New Bedford whaleman. The flavor of the 1870's was recalled as Mr. Allen set the stage for this confrontation between these diverse actors half a world apart. The culture of the Eskimo and the disastrous effect that whaling had upon that culture makes for a classic story of the primitive vs. the modern civilized man. The 1870 Eskimo, living in a state of anarchy, followed a code of conduct that would shame the civilized man with all of his government and laws that supposedly are necessary for justice and order. The great fleet of New Bedford whaling ships that Mr. Allen said would reach 10 miles if placed stern to stern in one line reached into this world of the Eskimo and upset the delicate balance that is life or death in the unforgiving world of ice and tundra. The Arctic Eskimo lives on the success of his daily hunt. The Arctic whaler, when whales grew scarce, went after the walrus that was the Eskimo's lifeline. The great icy trap that closed upon the New Bedford whaling fleet forcing the abandonment of 32 whaling ships by 1200 crew members in the Arctic was the climax of this confrontation. When the survivors struggled ashore the author said, the Eskimos greeted them with their constant hospitality and even sympathy. Mr. Allen quoted the Eskimo as saying, "Bad, Very bad for you. Good for us".

URGES TEXACO TO RECONSIDER

The Board of Selectmen has written to Mr. Tomaino of the Texaco Company to urge that the Neighborhood Texaco Station be continued in operation. They wrote that it has come to their attention that Texaco is considering closing the station permanently. Since it is the only Texaco station in town many residents have become dependent upon it for their allotment of gas because they are loyal customers. The Selectmen point out that closing during this shortage would cause great loss of faith in Texaco coming at this time. The Board of Selectmen seriously objects to the elimination of such a large allocation of gasoline to the town during this serious energy crisis.

JOHN FIGUEIRIDO

FOR SELECTMAN

- The future of Mattapoisett is my concern - the office of Selectman is the highest elected official in the town of Mattapoisett.

- I am greatly concerned because past experience, which is the best teacher, shows that personal power seems to be the goal and Mattapoisett has suffered greatly by it.

- This office requires a man who is mature, trustworthy and whose past performance proves that he will work for the best interest of the town.

- A Selectman should not meddle, harrass, or in any way interfere with the performance of any department, but should work through the Office of Selectman, and only with the cooperation of the other two men to help correct and advise so that the proper work of these departments would be assured.

- Future planning and a watchful eye on expenditures is necessary to help control our tax rate.

John Figueirido, Fairhaven Rd., Mattapoisett

quire 100% funding of the State's obligations rather than the 75% that Mr. Dicarlo suggested. He said that the purpose of the suggested requirement that the State pay interest charges in full on all sums that the town is forced to borrow because of the State's delinquency in paying its bills was to put pressure on the State government to live up to its responsibilities. While true that a 100% full funding requirement would legally do away with the need for the interest charge payment, the problem is how to make the State of Massachusetts do what it legally is required to do - pay its bills.

SELECTMEN INITIATE RESOLUTION

The Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen composed, passed and sent copies of the following resolution to all cities and towns in Plymouth County on January 31, 1974. A copy was also sent to Ken Osgood, president of the Massachusetts Selectmen's Association. The resolution concerns the Police Chief's and Fire Chief's ratio pay law.

The resolution is as follows: "Be it resolved that the Massachusetts Selectmen's Association petition the Great and General Court to repeal Chapter 1082 of the Acts of 1971 and to enact similar legislation which will be effective in each town only when duly accepted by said town."

The reaction, in part, of the towns which have replied is as follows:

Wareham, February 6, appreciated and heartily applauded; Middleboro, February 6, voted to adopt resolution; Bridgewater, February 5, if any action taken should not discriminate but should include every area where control of local salaries has been taken away by State; Kingston, February 6, Board of Selectmen voted to go on record as being in favor of the legislature to repeal in above manner; Plympton, February 6, Board of Selectmen heartily concur, "we also consider this law a violation of home rule"; Rochester, February 6, Board of Selectmen wholeheartedly endorse the resolution

Carnival Ball Sat.

CARNIVAL: BRAZILIAN WEEK AT SMU

The four days before Ash Wednesday are a time of celebration in many parts of the world, featuring such events as Mardi Gras in New Orleans & the internationally-attended CARNIVAL in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. This year, Southeastern Massachusetts University will recreate some of the magic and excitement of Carnival on Saturday, February 16, as a fitting finale to its Brazilian Week activities (February 9-16).

The Carnival Ball in the SMU Campus Center will feature authentic Brazilian Carnival music played continuously from 8 P.M. to 1 A.M. accompanied by color slides of scenes from past Carnivals in Rio. Carnival celebrants may come prepared to dance, or simply to observe and enjoy the festive atmosphere. Costumes are optional but definitely in place. Food and refreshments will be served.

Brazilian week opened with the fine acting of Riley Jason in the popular and moving Brazilian drama: "The Hands of Euridice" on February 9 and 10. Three conferences were given from February 11 to 13; two by members of the SMU faculty, and the third by the Cultural Attache of Brazil. On Monday Dr. Maria N. Moreira of the Department of Languages discussed "Contemporary Brazilian Art". On Tuesday Dr. Frederick Gifun of the Department of History presented the topic: "Brazil: Nation of Immigrants". On Wednesday, Dr. Sergio Duarte Queiroz will talk on "Brazil: Today and Tomorrow" at 7:30 P.M. in the Lecture Hall 203 of the Auditorium. On Thursday and Friday, a film series: "Brazil:

ATTENTION - SENIOR CITIZENS

There is a Bulletin Board in the lobby of the Mattapoisett Town Hall. There is pertinent information and activities that are beneficial to all citizens posted there.

Much of it is advertising, and some are advantages received from other sources, which is made known to the Council on Aging. The board is there 24 hours a day. Take a few minutes to read it. Your life may be enriched, both young and old. Our Town Hall is the center of matters in town. You'll thrill to the beautiful emblem of Mattapoisett.

SELECTMAN

determine why the Federal Energy Office is not enforcing the law which requires an equitable distribution of gasoline throughout all regions of the country.

As residents of New England and the 12th Congressional District well know, our section of the country is experiencing an extremely unfair maldistribution of available gasoline supplies -- a maldistribution which has resulted in gasoline shortages being especially acute along the South Shore and other areas of the District.

The existence of these inequities is confirmed by a recent nationwide survey of gasoline stations taken by the American Automobile Association which found that the shortage of gasoline is far worse in New England than anywhere else.

Sitting as a member of the Energy Subcommittee of the House Public Works Committee -- which conducted the hearings -- I was shocked to learn of the extent to which officials of the Federal Energy Office have been negligent in enforcing the provisions of the Mandatory Allocation Act -- and by their apparent insensitivity to the special needs of New England in this regard.

Many gasoline stations throughout our District are now open for only one hour a day because gasoline supplies are not available to dealers. With the full severity of the New England winter now complicating efforts by motorists to obtain gasoline, the situation is rapidly becoming intolerable. It is more than intolerable -- it may well be illegal. The law clearly states that regional inequities should not exist. I shall continue to do all I can to prod the Federal Energy Office to fulfill their legal mandate to allocate our gasoline fairly.

I can report to you that, at long last, the Federal Energy Office has issued proposed regulations which would result in the pooling of prices of foreign and domestic oil for New Englanders to make more equitable the burden shared by us all in paying the spiraling cost of home heating oil. I have been urging Mr. William Simon, Director of the Energy Office, to take this step, and he now tells me that he has set March 1 as the date the proposed program would go into effect. I regret that the federal bureaucracy has once again taken so long to act.

While there is need for improvement in the proposed regulations -- and I shall try to amend them -- I am gratified that we have finally focused official attention on one of

SEPTIC TANK - CESSPOOL CLOGGING CAN NOW BE PREVENTED!

LIVINGSTON, N. J. — An amazing bacterial discovery that prevents clogging of septic tanks and cesspools with but a single, safe and easy-to-use yearly treatment, has been developed by the FX-Lab Co., Livingston, N. J.

Sluggish systems and drainfields can also be restored to normal by fast acting bacterial cultures.

They are also recommended as a "starter" to seed newly cleaned out or newly installed septic tanks and cesspools.

These proven FX bacterial organisms, known as FX-4 for septic tanks, FX-7 for cesspools, and FX-11 for sluggish septic tanks and cesspools are available locally.

Available also, is a free booklet "The Story of Willie Bacteria, or How To Take Care of Your Septic Tank or Cesspool" from:

MATTAPOISETT VOTERS

If you want fair and equal representation in the office of Board of Health, you should give some deep thought as to who will best serve the whole town. My past interest in the Board of Health indicates my deep concern for the problems Mattapoisett faces and my desire to serve the town in this capacity. I respectfully request your support.

Thank you.

the most unfair aspects of the energy crisis.

For three days this week I participated in oversight hearings of the House Public Works Committee in an effort to learn from top officials of the Environmental Protection Agency why they have spent only a small fraction of the $18 billion the Congress has appropriated during the last three years for water and sewage treatment. Not only has the President illegally impounded half of these critically needed funds, but the E.P.A. has set new records for bureaucratic red tape and has overwhelmed state and local officials with mountains of paper work. The result is that literally hundreds of sewage and other water treatment projects have been needlessly delayed while local taxpayers have had to bear large amounts of interest on loans made by municipal governments to finance these projects. If revisions in the law are necessary to get these programs moving, then I shall do all I can to see that Congress does its part in correcting this situation.

I joined an overwhelming majority of the House this week in granting the Judiciary

On Thursday the House approved legislation to speed up the effective date of a regulatory decision to allow independent truckers to receive full payment for increased fuel costs from shippers. While I have no sympathy with the tactics of the truckers -- which have already caused lay-offs in New Bedford, and slowed some deliveries of food and fuel to Massachusetts - I did vote for this Administration backed bill because it helps correct an unfair situation.

The ship will be taken by an ocean towboat to an unidentified shipyard in Florida to be ripped apart. The Union Company bid $90,421.33 for the ship.

Capt. McNaughton said the old Bay State was one of some forty vessels on the reserve list put up for salvage by the U.S. Maritime Administration.

Everything usable on the old ship has been carefully removed and installed on the new Bay State tied up on the Canal side of the pier.

Dredging operations will begin immediately, probably the day after the ship is hauled away, to make room for the new and larger Bay State to fit into the berth on the side of the dock. The excavating will be accomplished in about one week by a huge crane dredge working from the pier and the materials will be hauled and dumped on an area of land in the rear of the Academy dormitories.

The preliminary dredging will provide sufficient temporary clearance for the new Bay State with about three feet to spare at low tide.
